“ I remember when we first started talking we clicked immediately. Over the years we got to know each other very well. You always knew how to make me laugh always. I loved when we did food wars over snapchat you jokingly would say "You ain't even right for that...I got you mami" You will always be my best friend and I hope you look down and smile at me. I love you!

“ I remember hanging out with you and Christina for the first time at your house. You brought me friendship and laughter. When we all used too meet up at the hookah bars, we had jokes and enjoyed life. I will never forget those days. I know you are in a better place now with god. Iam praying for you and your family..

“ No words can express how much I miss you.
I know you will be watching and over me & my little one.
We all love you so much.
Anthony and I will never forget the bike rides.
Teen Nights in the Summer at the Hazlet Pool Club.
Hanging out downstairs at your house playing video games.
Your cute little dogs that hated me. LOL
Eating your mom's food after swimming all day in your awesome pool, and always ditching a day in our pool because it was always so cold!!
I will never forget how we were never allowed to hang out in the front of our houses.
LOL
& how cool it was that your cousin lived right next door.

You & your family are always in my prayers. XOXO
I love you Big E !!! I will post pics as soon as I can get my hands on some.

We don't have many because we were too busy enjoying life. I wish we took more pictures together. I know I definitely have one from my Sweet 16 Party !!
